

MAY HAVE NEW COMMERCE COURT

President Considering Advise-ability of Movement of This Character.

BILL SAID TO BE DRAWN

Colonel Harwood Calls at White House in Behalf of T. P. A. Men.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Col. John S. Harwood, of Richmond, chairman of the National Legislative Committee of the T. P. A., F. W. Crandall, of St. Louis, chairman of the Railway Committee of the same organization, and John C. Stimmerling, a national director of the organization, had a talk to-day with President Roosevelt by invitation, concerning the proposed legislation by which the regulation of freight rates is to be given to the Interstate Commerce Commission. The President's callers assured him that the commercial men of the country would uphold him in his efforts to secure legislation of this character and the President expressed his gratification.

Interstate Commerce Court.

The President intimated that the proposition to have an interstate commerce court to take the place of the commission was being considered. A bill of this character was introduced some years ago, but received scarcely any attention as the then President had not urged the enactment of that kind of legislation. The President had a long talk on the subject with Judge Grosscup, of Chicago, last week, and to-day he spent some time discussing the same matter with Judge William Morrow, of the United States Circuit Court of San Francisco. He is trying to get to the bottom of the question and those who oppose the legislation which he asks feel that his studious attention to the subject bodes them no good.

It is understood that the mind of the President is not at all made up as to the wisdom of establishing a court having the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission with greatly enlarged powers, among others, and chiefly, that to fix freight charges. It is believed he thinks there are several good arguments in favor of such a tribunal, and that he will occupy the position of a Supreme Court of Appeals in addition to acting in an executive capacity.

The Commerce Committee of the Senate will meet Friday, and the subject of legislation along the lines proposed by the President in his message, will come to the fore. The committee will be called to order by Senator McKim, chairman of the committee, and the subject of the bill will be taken up.

Necessity for Action.

Colonel Harwood and his associates, upon the President to-day, the necessity of governmental action, and called his attention to the fact that the railroads had advanced rates in spite of the fact that traffic was heavier than ever in the history of the world. They produced figures to show that the tonnage of 1903 had increased 10 per cent, and that the result would have been a reduction in the earnings of the railroads, for 1904 of over $150,000,000, conversely that this is the profit made by the roads in 1903 from increase in rates alone. Answering the statement of the railroads that these advances were made necessary by increased operating expenses, the committee showed that the gross earnings of the mile of line averaged for 1903 $3.12, operating expenses, $1.00; net earnings, $2.12.

For 1904, $3.32, operating expenses, $1.17; net earnings, $2.15.

So that the net earnings per mile of line for the entire United States in spite of increased operating expenses had increased nearly fifty-eight per cent, in six years.

The committee advances the theory that the regulation of tax on the basis of $1,000,000 people of $2.31 per capita and a tax which had increased since 1893, thirty-seven per cent, was an important matter to be left in the present condition, and urges a line of action, which, while conserving the interests of the people, will protect the people from rates fixed so as to yield a revenue on watered stocks and inflated valuations.

"We are for governmental supervision, not ownership or control," said Colonel Harwood.

The committee believes this the attitude of the President.

The New York Herald of yesterday has a long article on the proposed legislation along the line of an Interstate Commerce Court. This bill is said to be now in the hands of Attorney General Clegg for his opinion and correction. It is almost word for word the measure drawn up by Richard Olney, formerly attorney-general, and introduced in the Senate by Senator Sawyer, of Wisconsin, in January, 1893.

Xmas Gif s.

FOR more than 100 years we have had the patronage of those identified with the highest official and social life of the Capital and country.

All correspondence given careful attention. Goods sent on approval, express prepaid.

Galt & Bro.

Established Over a Century.
Jewellers, Silvermiths, Stationers.
1107 Pennsylvania Avenue,
Washington, D. C.

Our Announcement.

We wish to extend our thanks to the public in general for the many favors accorded this house in the past, and also for their sympathy at the loss of our senior member and father, Mr. Julius Sytle.

We desire to state that there will be no change in the firm name, or business methods. Our every effort will be to please as we have always done.

Again thanking you for your liberal patronage, and soliciting a continuance of same,

Yours respectfully,

SAMUEL SYCLE, SYDNEY SYCLE, LEE SYCLE,

JULIUS SYCLE & SONS,

Second and Broad Streets.

PRINCE OF PILSEN WELCOMED HERE

The Production in Its Chorus and Stagin Better Than Ever.

It does not often happen that a big musical comedy goes out another season without its stars and yet scores even a greater hit than it did when it had in the cast the featured comedian. As rare as this is, it sometimes happens, and it did last night when "The Prince of Pilsen" was presented at the Academy before the largest audience of the season.

John Ransome had every one in Richmond last season imitating him in his querry, "Was you ever in Pilsen?"

His work in the role of Hans Wagner was the talk of all who witnessed the performance. Jesse Landy, who plays the role in the production of this season, is a very clever imitator, though Ransome goes him several better. However, more than the work of any one man enters into the success of a performance of this kind. "There are others," and these others in the production of yesterday's "The Prince of Pilsen" were more than enough to make up for the absence of Mr. Ransome.

The chorus girls were a better looking lot than were last season's, and the production was a little different with the result that the pictures were prettier; the costumes were handsomer; the scenery was a whole was better, viewed as a spectacle.

Mrs. Ida Stannhope, as Mrs. Crocker, made a good deal of a hit, and a widow could be, widows usually being considered attractive. She is a beautiful woman, and was good as a matter of fact, from the man's view of it, the dream was inside the gown—it was the woman on the inside of the gown that attracted the audience.

Miss Almyra Forrest, who was cast as Edith Adams, gave to the part a charm that made it distinctive, and her work in the part was very effective. She had a pretty way that was all her own.

"Car," the new production, a big, mainly about the same, and Ivar Anderson, who were the uniform of a United States naval officer to the entire satisfaction of himself and the audience.

No musical production this season has been received with more general favor than "The Prince of Pilsen," and the fact that it is a musical comedy, filled with comedy, balcony and gallery, it not being a one-sided or top-heavy house.

"At Cripple Creek."

Clinton B. Lloyd, who is portraying the character of Joe McElroy, a hardy young miner in the play, "At Cripple Creek," is giving a new version of the role in many respects. Lloyd is a very clever actor, and his work in the play is something that is not always done in plays requiring the rapidity of action that is called for in "At Cripple Creek."

The play will hold the boards the rest of the week, with a matinee to-day and another Saturday.

"On Thanksgiving Day."

"On Thanksgiving Day," a play from the pen of Owen Davis, comes to the Bijou next week, opening Monday night, at 8 o'clock. The play is a comedy, and is a very clever one. It is a play that is not always done in plays requiring the rapidity of action that is called for in "At Cripple Creek."

ALL WENT SKATING.

Many at Forest Hill and Reservoir Last Night—Snow To-day.

Skating holds high carnival around Richmond. On yesterday and last night the lakes at the Reservoir, Forest Hill Park and Lakeside were crowded with skaters. Some of these were who out of all manner of duds, but others vainly attempting to make out they had learned to crawl, went sadly home adorned with bumps and bruises.

The small boy, bringing Mohammed to the skating pond, and using the uncovered streets as a skating pond. Hundreds of them were busy juggling their skates on the ice, and the whole southland was approaching a snow coming from the southeast, and the whole southland will be held in its chilly embrace.

TAKE NORTHERN BRIDE.

Well Known Virginia Officer to Wed a Bay State Belle.

Announcement has just been made of the engagement of Lieutenant Charles M. Blackford, of the 10th Virginia Infantry, to Miss Clara L. Thomson, of Andover, Mass. The wedding will take place on Friday, January 14, at 10 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Benjamin Blackford, of Andover, Mass. The bride is a daughter of the late General Blackford, of the 10th Virginia Infantry, and is a young officer of great promise. His regiment has just been ordered to the front, and he is going with the command from San Francisco about March 1, 1905.

Handsone Duty Fees.

The Richmond custom house has been busy for several days receiving invoices and shipments of goods, most of which are consigned to Richmond firms. Altogether there will be about a thousand dollars due from the receipts at the custom house, and the interest of the same is being paid by the custom house. Among the consignments already received are: Sherry wine, art works, a carload of glass, a carload of salt, a carload of garden and field seeds, a shipment of rose bushes for Mann & Brown, of Norfolk, and a shipment of glassware for the same firm. A big consignment of plate glass was for B. W. Warner & Co., and came from Belgium. In addition, there were received for about 100 boxes of goods for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company. All the matings received were destined for Atlanta firms.

Christmas on Exchange.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The governors of the Stock Exchange voted to-day to close the exchange on Saturday, December 17, and to observe the Christmas holidays.

The exchange will be closed from Friday, December 23, until Tuesday, December 27th, in observance of the Christmas holidays.

Miss Forrest Not Richmond Girl.

Miss Forrest, the sprightly maiden with the voice, who plays the Vassar Girl in the Prince of Pilsen, is not a Richmond girl.

The story went the rounds on yesterday that she was from this city, but although she says she wishes she were from this city, she is not a Richmond girl, and she must claim New York as her home.

BOY IN TROUBLE

Arrested in Petersburg and Will be Taken Back to Delaware.

MEDICAL FACULTY TO MEET

Gen. Bolling Hopes to Get Appropriation of $70,000 for Enlargement Federal Building.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., December 14.—Michael Jockett, an escaped inmate of the Ferris Industrial School, a reformatory near Wilmington, Delaware, was arrested here this morning. Jockett is one of the two young fugitives from the Ferris School who were caught by the Petersburg police several days ago and taken back to the reformatory by a guard from the institution. Jockett assaulted that officer at the railroad station here, and it became necessary to handcuff the prisoner. When arrested to-day Jockett declared that he had been discharged from the reformatory, and was looking for work, but Captain Ragland, chief of police, was suspicious, and at once notified the reformatory authorities, receiving a reply this afternoon from E. L. Stewart, the superintendent, stating that the man had escaped and would be sent for. It is presumed that he got away from the guard on the return to Wilmington, and that he is the same man who was with him at the time of the first arrest. They were a formidable pair, and but for the timely arrival of a police officer, would probably have dangerously injured their guard when the result at the railroad station was made. The Petersburg medical faculty will to-morrow night hold the first of the regular monthly meetings decided upon at the recent banquet. Scientific papers will be read at these conferences, to be followed by a general discussion of the subject introduced.

General S. H. Bolling, the Petersburg postmaster, has interested some of the most influential members of the Senate and House of Representatives in a bill appropriating $70,000 for the enlargement of the Federal building here. The postmaster is much in need of more space.

Despite heavy snows and severe cold, great quantities of tobacco and peanuts are still being brought to Petersburg.

Sales at the tobacco warehouses to-day were unusually large and prices good.

Simon Seward, one of Petersburg's most prominent citizens, will lecture to-morrow night for the benefit of the A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans on some of his experiences during the war, especially as they relate to the Federal army in Petersburg.

The Hastings Court will meet to-morrow morning to try several cases on appeal.

Chief of Police S. H. Seward, who represented himself as an insurance agent, and defrauded several people in Richmond, has not operated here.

ELECT OFFICERS.

Colored Masons Hold Second Day's Session.

The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of colored Masons of Virginia held its second day's session yesterday, during which Grand Master J. B. Evans presided. The lodge is held in the hall of the Grand Lodge, which was full of interest to the fraternity. He reported that eight new lodges had been formed during the last year. This closes his second and last year.

Other reports were read by the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, and the twenty district deputy grand masters.

The evening session was held at St. Luke's Hall, and was presided over by the grand master, J. B. Evans, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, and the twenty district deputy grand masters.

The following officers were elected: Grand master, J. B. Evans; grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding; grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris; grand treasurer, Douglas Johnson, Petersburg; grand warden, Benjamin R. Boulding, Norfolk; grand senior deacon, Rev. P. Morris, Lynchburg.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

The speech of the grand master, James Hugo Johnson, president of the V. N. & I. L. Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand lecturer, Benjamin R. Boulding, of Norfolk, who gave many very interesting reports, and the grand secretary, Dr. H. L. Harris, of Petersburg, who gave many very interesting reports.

WIFE OF DEAD MAN WON STAND

Nan Patterson, Deathly Pale, Watches Every Movement of Mrs. Young.

EXAMINATION VERY BRIEF

Witness Merely Identified Letter Referred to in Course of the Trial.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, December 14.—Mrs. Young, widow of Caesar Young, was a witness to-day in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court, where Nan Patterson is on trial for the murder of her husband, who was on the stand only long enough to identify a letter to which another witness had referred, Mrs. Young's presence there developed one of the most intense situations of the trial. As the wife of the dead man took the stand, Mrs. Patterson looked deathly pale, but watched intently every movement of the witness during her brief examination.

The letter which Mrs. Young identified had been produced by Bernard L. McKean, one of Young's brothers-in-law, who testified that about a year ago, in a conversation with Miss Patterson early in May, and that Miss Patterson had said the letter was written by her sister, Mrs. J. Morgan Smith. The letter has not yet been read in evidence.

Another of Young's brothers-in-law, William Luce, told of what occurred between Young and Miss Patterson at their meeting in a saloon the night before Young was killed, and John Crowley, a cab driver, repeated his story of having seen Young slap the prisoner's face during a quarrel on the street that same night.

Assistant District Attorney Rand to-day withdrew his request that the grand jury subpoena served on J. Morgan Smith be admitted as evidence. Mr. Rand said he was acting in this matter in accordance with information which satisfied him that the admissibility of the subpoena was not free from doubt. At the conclusion of Mr. Rand's statement, and upon suggestion of attorney for the defense, Justice Pitney decided to exclude the subpoenaed references made to the missing witness.

William Luce, brother-in-law of Caesar Young, said that on the night preceding the death of Young, Luce and Young met Nan Patterson in a saloon, and that Young and the woman quarreled there. Luce heard Young tell her he would go to a cottage. Said Luce:

"Young told her that he was going away, and she replied that he was not going. He told her she did not know the name of the boat he was leaving on, and she replied that she knew the name of the boat. She answered that she would not give him the satisfaction of telling him the name of the boat. She also said: 'Don't get up early and go aboard the boat, because you cannot hide from me, even if you get into the hold. You won't even if you get into the hold.'"

Young was excited and the woman was crying. After the talk Young put Nan Patterson in a cab and sent her off alone. Luce said he neither struck or kissed her.

SOLD MUCH TOBACCO.

Farmers Defy Snow and Ice With Their Precious Weed.

From 100,000 to 175,000 pounds of leaf tobacco were sold at the Richmond warehouse yesterday, according to the tobacco estate estimates made by the various warehouses. The expected result of the late crop of tobacco, according to the tobacco estate estimates, is a very large one, and it is not yet sufficiently large to warrant them in ceasing to buy it. It is believed.

Yesterday's sales as reported by the various warehouses were: Shag, 100,000; Stalk, 45,000; Stone, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000; Shag, 45,000; Stalk, 40,000; 5,000; and Crenshaw's about 30,000. At Crenshaw's one lot was sold at $14.75, the highest price of the day.

To-day's sales will be in this order: Stone, 100,000;